We recently heard the song, "Vamo' a la Calle (RMX)" by Venezuelan singers Carlos Baute and Chyno Miranda. This song is a touching call to action anthem for the people of the world to learn about the dire situation in Venezuela. Your students will learn so much from this powerful lesson and from the videos and activities that correspond with this song. http://www.sparkenthusiasm.com/Vamo_a_la_calle.html

The song "100 Años" by Prince Royce & Ha*ash is a super fun song to teach tan, tanto, por eso & pronouns! Your students will love it!

You may need some ideas for some quality films to show before holiday breaks. LOVE Living On One Dollar, Secret Life of Pets, Frosty, Rudolph and Elf right before Christmas to put everyone in the Christmas spirit! http://sparkenthusiasm.com/popular_movies.html

The Christmas song, "Te Regalo", by Sebastián Yatra is amazing! Your kids can choose which version they prefer to listen to by clicking on the corresponding Coke bottle at the end of the video!

The movie Ferdinand will be released in theaters on December 15th just in time for winter vacation! We already have a Ferdinand movie game ready to go with several bullfighting resources! We will be busy working on activities to accompany the movie, so keep an eye on our website for all the great videos, ideas, and activities that will be coming your way!
