<http://www.teacherspayteachers.com/Product/La-Misma-Luna-Movie-Packet-and-Immigration-Unit-191977>

~ Living on One Dollar is a documentary that takes place in rural Guatemala where four friends experience the challenges faced when living on an average of one dollar per day for two months. This eye-opening documentary teaches about poverty, world hunger, and the need for clean, accessible water. All who see this movie will be inspired to fight for social justice and to be a part of the solution to end world poverty. Not Rated

<https://www.teacherspayteachers.com/Product/Living-on-One-Dollar-Movie-Guide-and-Guatemala-Unit-in-Spanish-and-English-2592361>

~ Los 33 = The 33 is based on the true story of the 33 miners who were trapped in a copper and gold mine in Chile for 69 days while members of a rescue team worked tirelessly to try to save them. This movie shows the heroism and bravery of the miners, their families, Don Francisco, and the Chilean people. Antonio Banderas, Lou Diamond Phillips, and Kate del Castillo bring this beautiful movie to life brilliantly. Rated PG-13

<http://www.teacherspayteachers.com/Product/Los-33-The-33-Movie-Guide-with-Complete-Chile-Unit-in-Spanish-2579717>

~ Los Colores de la Montaña = The Colors of the Mountain shows the beauty of Colombia and its people as well as the dangerous aspects of living in this South American nation. The story is told through the eyes of the children who live in a small, rural mountainous region in Colombia. The children witness the strong desire of their teacher to give them a voice by educating them, as well as the fear that exists among the people of their village due to landmines, paramilitary groups, and violence. There are so many rich cultural themes depicted in this film, and the scenery in the movie is breathtaking! Not Rated

<http://www.teacherspayteachers.com/Product/Los-Colores-de-la-Montana-Movie-Packet-and-Colombia-Unit-1327250>

~ Los Diarios de Motocicleta = Motorcycle Diaries is based on diaries and letters to home written by Ernesto "Che" Guevara during a motorcycle tour through Venezuela, Colombia, Argentina, Chile, and Peru during the early 1950's, years before Guevara achieved international recognition as a Communist and Latino revolutionary. Diarios de Motocicleta depicts a gentle, healing nature in the main character, and allows the viewer to draw conclusions as to how and why Ernesto Guevara transformed into the brutal, fierce revolutionary "Che" Guevara. The scenery including that of Machu Picchu is extraordinary. Rated R

<http://www.teacherspayteachers.com/Product/Motorcycle-Diaries-Complete-Movie-Packet-in-Spanish-Diarios-de-Motocicleta-1306837>

~ Made in LA = This documentary follows the story of three Latina immigrants working in Los Angeles garment sweatshops as they embark on a three-year journey to win basic labor protections from the mega-trendy clothing retailer, Forever 21. Made in L.A. reveals the impact of the struggle on each woman's life as each is gradually transformed by the experience. This documentary is compelling but humorous. Made in L.A. is a story about immigration, the power of unity, and the courage it takes to find your voice. Not Rated
