

Spark Enthusiasm Newsletter January 2020

The new movie, Dora y la ciudad perdida, is perfect to teach about Peru, the Amazon rainforest, friendship, indigenous people, and respecting others' differences. Our NEW Dora movie guide includes cultural information about PERU, readings about Dora and Diego animated TV shows, movie quizzes, character descriptions, readings about the all-Hispanic cast, opinion discussion sheets, tons of videos to learn about llamas, quechua, incas, Machu Picchu, the importance of safe drinking water in Latin America and everything needed to teach about this adorable, nostalgic movie. We highly recommend using our "sana sana colita de rana" materials included to teach about health and traditions among native Spanish speakers to soothe children when they get hurt or feel sick. This movie and the lessons that complement it will be a favorite among students! Visit our website to see all of our great new resources!
